Sec. 1.01. Purpose of Code

(a) This code is enacted as a part of the state's continuing statutory revision program, begun by the Texas Legislative Council in 1963 as directed by the legislature in Chapter 448, Acts of the 58th Legislature, 1963 (Article 5429b—1, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). The program contemplates a topic-by-topic revision of the state's general and permanent statute law without substantive change.

(b) Consistent with the objectives of the statutory revision program, the purpose of this code is to make the general and permanent alcoholic beverage law more accessible and understandable, by:

- (1) rearranging the statutes into a more logical order;
- (2) employing a format and numbering system designed to facilitate citation of the law and to accommodate future expansion of the law;
- (3) eliminating repealed, duplicative, unconstitutional, expired, executed, and other ineffective provisions; and
- (4) restating the law in modern American English to the greatest extent possible. (New.)

Sec. 1.02. Construction of Code

The Code Construction Act (Article 5429b—2, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) applies to the construction of each provision in this code, except as otherwise expressly provided by this code. (New.)

Sec. 1.03. Public Policy

This code is an exercise of the police power of the state for the protection of the welfare, health, peace, temperance, and safety of the people of the state. It shall be liberally construed to accomplish this purpose. (V.A.P.C. Art. 666—2.)

Sec. 1.04. Definitions

Sec. 11.03. Nature of Permit

A permit issued under this code is a purely personal privilege and is subject to revocation as provided in this code. It is not property, is not subject to execution, does not pass by descent or distribution, and except as otherwise provided in this code, ceases on the death of the holder. (V.A.P.C. Art. 666—13, subsec. (b) (part).)

Sec. 11.04. Must Display Permit

All permits shall be displayed in a conspicuous place at all times on the licensed premises. (V.A.P.C. Art. 666—15a1 (part).)

Sec. 11.05. Unauthorized Use of Permit

Sec. 11.09. Expiration of Permit

A permit issued under this code expires one year after the date it is issued except as otherwise provided by this code. (V.A.P.C. Art. 666—13, subsec. (a).)

The permit may not be renewed, but the receiver or successor in interest may apply for an original permit or license. A receiver or successor in interest operating for the unexpired portion of the permit is subject to the provisions of this code relating to suspension or cancellation of a permit. (V.A.P.C. Art. 666—13, subsec. (b) (part).)

SUBCHAPTER A. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Sec. 61.01. License Required

No person may manufacture or brew beer for the purpose of sale, import it into this state, distribute or sell it, or possess it for the purpose of sale without having first obtained an appropriate license or permit as provided in this code. Each licensee shall display his license at all times in a conspicuous place at the licensed place of business. (V.A.P.C. Art. 667—3 (part).)

Sec. 61.02. Nature of License; Succession on Death, Bankruptcy, Etc.

(a) A license issued under this code is a purely personal privilege and is subject to revocation as provided in this code. It is not property, is not subject to execution, does not pass by descent or distribution, and ceases on the death of the holder.

(b) On the death of the licensee or of a person having an interest in the license, or on bankruptcy, receivership, or partnership dissolution, the receiver or successor in interest may apply to the county judge of the county where the licensed premises are located for certification that he is the receiver or successor in interest. On certification, unless good cause for refusal is shown, the commission or administrator shall grant permission, by letter or otherwise, for the receiver or successor in interest to operate the business during the unexpired portion of the license. The license may not be renewed, but the receiver or successor in interest may apply for an original license. A receiver or successor in interest operating for the unexpired portion of the license is subject to the provisions of this code relating to the suspension or cancellation of a license. (V.A.P.C. Art. 666—13, subsec. (b) (part).)

Sec. 61.03. Duration and Expiration of License

No license may be issued for a term longer than one year. Any license except a branch, importer's, importer's carrier's, or temporary license expires one year after the date on which it is issued. (V.A.P.C. Art. 667—7, subsec. (a) (part).)

Sec. 61.04. License Not Assignable

No holder of a license may assign his license to another person. (V.A.P.C. art. 667—7, subsec. (d) (part).)

Sec. 61.05. Name of Business

No person may conduct a business engaged in the manufacture, distribution, importation, or sale of beer as owner or part owner except under the name to which the license covering his place of business is issued. (V.A.P.C. Art. 667—7, subsec. (f).)

Sec. 61.06. Privileges Limited to Licensed Premises; Deliveries

No person licensed to sell beer, except a manufacturer or distributor, may use or display a license or exercise a privilege granted by the license except at the licensed premises. Deliveries of beer and collections may be made off the licensed premises in areas where the sale of beer is legal inside the county where the license is issued, but only in response to orders placed by the customer in person at the licensed premises or by mail or telephone to the licensed premises. (V.A.P.C. Art. 667—31.)

Sec. 61.07. Agent for Service

Each manufacturer, distributor, or person shipping or delivering beer into this state shall file a certificate with the secretary of state designating the name, street address, and business of his agent on whom process may be served. If a certificate is not filed, service may be had on the secretary of state in any cause of action arising out of a violation of this code, and the secretary of state shall send any citation served on him by registered mail, return receipt requested, to the person for whom the citation is intended. The receipt is prima facie evidence of service on the person. (V.A.P.C. Art. 667—12.)

Sec. 61.08. Statement of Stock Ownership

The commission at any time may require an officer of a corporation holding a license to file a sworn statement showing the actual owners of the stock of the corporation, the amount of stock owned by each, the officers of the corporation, and any information concerning the qualifications of the officers or stockholders. (V.A.P.C. Art. 666—15d (part).)

§ 61.08

Sec. 61.09. Change of Location

If a licensee desires to change his place of business, he may do so by applying to the county judge on a form prescribed by the commission and obtaining his consent. The application may be subject to protest and hearing in the same way as an application for an original license. The county judge may deny the application for any cause for which an original license application may be denied. No additional license fee for the unexpired term of the license shall be required in the case of an application for a change of location. (V.A.P.C. Art. 667—7, subsec. (d) (part).)

Sec. 61.10. Replacement of License

If a license is mutilated or destroyed, the commission or administrator may issue another license as a replacement in a manner acceptable to the commission or administrator. (V.A.P.C. Art. 667—7, subsec. (h).)

Sec. 61.11. Warning Sign Required

(a) Each holder of a license shall display in a prominent place on his premises a sign, at least 6 inches high and 14 inches wide, stating: FELONY. STATE LAW PRESCRIBES A MAXIMUM PENALTY OF TEN YEARS' IMPRISONMENT AND A FINE NOT TO EXCEED $5,000 FOR CARRYING WEAPONS WHERE ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES ARE SOLD, SERVED, OR CONSUMED.

(b) A licensee who violates this section commits a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than $25. (V.A.P.C. Art. 667—19E.)

Sec. 61.12. Restriction on Consumption

[Sections 61.13–61.30 reserved for expansion]

SUBCHAPTER B. APPLICATION AND ISSUANCE OF LICENSESSec. 61.31. Application for License

(a) A person may file an application for a license to manufacture, distribute, or sell beer in termtime or vacation with the county judge of the county in which he desires to conduct business. He shall file the application in duplicate.

(b) The county judge shall set the application for a hearing to be held not less than 5 nor more than 10 days after the application is filed.

(c) Each applicant for an original license, other than a branch or temporary license, shall pay a hearing fee of $5 to the county clerk at the time of the hearing. The county clerk shall deposit the fee in the county treasury. The applicant is liable for no other fee except the annual license fee prescribed by this code.

(d) No person may sell beer during the pendency of his original license application. No official may advise a person to the contrary. (V.A.P.C. Art. 667—5 (part); Art. 667—6, subsec. (a), (f), and (g).)

Sec. 61.32. Hearing by County Judge

(a) On hearing an application, if the county judge finds that all facts stated in the application are true and no legal ground to refuse a license exists, he shall enter an order certifying those findings and give the applicant a copy of the order. If the county judge finds otherwise, he shall enter an order accordingly.

(b) If the county judge enters an order favorable to the applicant, the applicant shall present a copy of the order to the assessor and collector of taxes of the county and pay that officer the appropriate license fee. The assessor and collector of taxes then shall report to the commission on a form prescribed by the commission, certifying that the application was approved and that all required fees have been paid and furnishing any other information the commission requires. The assessor and collector of taxes shall attach a copy of the original application to the report.

(c) In the case of an application to sell beer at retail, the county judge shall give due consideration to any recommendations made by representatives of the commission, the sheriff or county or district attorney of the county where the license is sought, or the mayor or chief of police of the incorporated city where the applicant seeks to conduct business. (V.A.P.C. Art. 667—6, subsec. (c) (part), (d) (part), and (e) (part).)

Sec. 61.33. Action by Commission or Administrator

(a) On receiving a report from the assessor and collector of taxes under Section 61.32(b) of this code, the commission or administrator shall issue the appropriate license if the commission or administrator finds that the applicant is entitled to a license. The license shall show the class of business the applicant is authorized to conduct, the amount of fees paid, the address of the place of business, the date the license is issued and the date it expires, and any other information the commission considers proper.

(b) The commission or administrator may refuse to issue a license after receiving the report of the assessor and collector of taxes if the commission or administrator possesses information from which it is determined that any statement in the license application is false or misleading or that there is other legal reason why a license should not be issued. If the commission or administrator refuses to issue a license, it or he shall enter an order accordingly and the applicant is entitled to a refund of any license fee he paid the assessor and collector of taxes in connection with the application. (V.A.P.C. Art. 667—6, subsec. (c) (part) and (e) (part).)

Sec. 61.34. Appeal From Denial

(a) If the county judge, commission, or administrator denies an application, the applicant may appeal within 30 days from the date the order becomes final and appealable to the district court of the county where the application was made. The appeal is governed by Section 11.67 of this code, and the court may hear the appeal in termtime or vacation.

(b) If the judgment of the district court is in favor of the applicant, regardless of whether an appeal is taken, a copy of the judgment shall be presented to the assessor and collector of taxes of the county where the application was made. The assessor and collector of taxes shall accept the fees required by this code and proceed as provided under Section 61.32 of this code as if the county judge had approved the application.

(c) If a license is issued on the basis of a district court judgment and that judgment is reversed on appeal, the mandate of the appellate court automatically invalidates the license and the applicant is entitled to a proportionate refund of fees for the unexpired portion of the license. As much of the proceeds from license fees collected under this subtitle as is necessary may be appropriated for the payment of those refunds.

§ 61.34

(d) A person appealing from an order under this section shall give bond for all costs incident to the appeal and shall be required to pay those costs if the judgment on appeal is unfavorable to the applicant, but not otherwise. No bond is required on appeals filed on behalf of the state. (V.A.P.C. Art. 667—6, subsec. (e).)

Sec. 61.35. License Fees

(a) A separate license fee is required for each place of business that manufactures, imports, or sells beer.

(b) All license fees, except those for temporary licenses, shall be deposited as provided in Section 205.02 of this code. The assessor and collector of taxes shall make statements of the amounts collected by him under this code to the commission at the times and in the manner required by the commission or administrator.

(c) No licensee may obtain a refund on the surrender or nonuse of a license except as provided by this code.

(d) If a licensee engaged in selling beer is prevented from continuing in business by a local option election, he is entitled to a refund of a proportionate amount of the license fees he has paid covering the unexpired term of his license. As much of the proceeds derived under the provisions of this subtitle as is necessary may be appropriated for that purpose. (V. A.P.C. Art. 667—4; Art. 667—7, subsec. (c), (e); Art. 667—11; Art. 667—18.)

Sec. 61.36. Local Fee Authorized

(a) The governing body of an incorporated city or town may levy and collect a fee not to exceed one-half of the state fee for each license, except a temporary or agent's beer license, issued for premises located within the city or town. The commissioners court of a county may levy and collect a fee equal to one-half the state fee for each license, except a temporary or agent's beer license, issued for premises located within the county. Those authorities may not levy or collect any other fee or tax from the licensee except general ad valorem taxes, the hotel occupancy tax levied under Chapter 63, Acts of the 59th Legislature, Regular Session, 1965, as amended (Article 1269j—4.1, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and the local sales and use tax levied under the Local Sales and Use Tax Act, as amended (Article 1066c, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

(b) The commission or administrator may cancel a license if it finds the permittee has not paid a fee levied by a city under this section. A licensee who sells an alcoholic beverage without first having paid a fee levied under this section commits a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $200.

(c) Nothing in this code shall be construed as a grant to any political subdivision of the authority to regulate licensees except by collecting the fees authorized in this section and exercising those powers granted to political subdivisions by other provisions of this code. (V.A.P.C. Art. 666—15a1 (part); Art. 667—3, subsec. (h), (k)(9) (part).)

Sec. 61.37. Certification of Wet or Dry Status

(a) The county clerk of the county in which an application for a license is made shall certify whether the location or address given in the application is in a wet area and whether the sale of alcoholic beverages for which the license is sought is prohibited by any valid order of the commissioners court.

(b) The city secretary or clerk of the city in which an application for a license is made shall certify whether the location or address given in the application is in a wet area and whether the sale of alcoholic beverages for which the license is sought is prohibited by charter or ordinance. (V.A.P.C. Art. 666—54 (part).)

Sec. 61.38. Notice of Application

(a) When an application for a license to manufacture or distribute beer is filed, the county clerk shall post at the courthouse door a written notice containing the substance of the application and the date set for hearing.

(b) When an original application to sell beer at retail at a location previously licensed is filed, the county clerk shall post at the courthouse door a written notice containing the substance of the application and the date set for hearing.

(c) When an original application to sell beer at retail at a location not previously licensed is filed, the county clerk shall publish notice for two consecutive issues in a newspaper of general circulation published in the city or town in which the applicant's place of business is to be located. If no newspaper of general circulation is published in that city or town, the notice shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the applicant's business is to be located. If no newspaper of general circulation is published in that county, the notice shall be published in a newspaper which is published in the closest neighboring county and is circulated in the county where the license is sought. The notice shall be in 10-point boldface type and shall set forth the type of license applied for; the exact location of the business; the name of the owner or owners; the trade name, if operating under an assumed name; and in the case of a corporate applicant, the names and titles of all officers of the corporation. At the time the application is filed, the applicant shall deposit with the clerk the cost of publishing notice, which the clerk shall use to pay for the publication. (V.A.P.C. Art. 667—6, subsecs. (b)(1) and (b)(2).)

Sec. 61.39. May Contest Application

Any person may contest the facts stated in an application for a license to distribute, manufacture, or sell beer at retail, or the applicant's right to secure a license, if he gives security for all costs which may be incurred in the contest if the case should be decided in favor of the applicant. No security for costs may be required of an officer of a county or incorporated city or town. (V.A.P.C. Art. 667—6, subsec. (b)(3).)

Sec. 61.40. Premises Ineligible for License

If the holder of the existing license desires to transfer the license to another location, he may apply for a transfer of location in accordance with this code. If the holder of the existing license has made a declaration required by the commission that he will no longer use the license, he may not manufacture or sell beer or possess it for the purpose of sale until the license has been reinstated. The holder may apply to the county judge for the reinstatement of his license in the same manner and according to the same procedure as in the case of an original license application. The county judge or the commission or administrator may deny reinstatement of the license for any cause for which an original license application may be denied. (V.A.P.C. Art. 667—7, subsec. (i).)

Sec. 61.42. Mandatory Grounds for Refusal: Distributor or Retailer

The county judge shall refuse to approve an application for a license as a distributor or retailer if he has reasonable grounds to believe and finds that:

- (1) the applicant is under 18 years of age;
- (2) the applicant is indebted to the state for any taxes, fees, or penalties imposed by this code or by rule of the commission;

If the applicant is a corporation, the statement must be signed by one of its principal officers. The county judge shall not approve an application unless it is accompanied by the required sworn statement.

(b) This section does not apply to the holder of a manufacturer's license which was in effect on January 1, 1953. (V.A.P.C. Art. 667—5 (part).)

- (1) preliminary engineering;
- (2) preparing drawings and specifications;
- (3) conducting engineering, architectural, or equipment studies;

or

- (4) preparing for the taking of bids from contractors.

(b) During the three-year period following the issuance of a manufacturer's license, as long as the licensee is engaged in construction or in a preliminary stage of construction enumerated in Subsection (a) of this section, the commission shall issue each renewal license to take effect immediately on the expiration of the expiring license and shall not require the licensee to make an original application.

If the commission finds that the licensee has been prevented from complying by causes beyond his reasonable control, it may grant one additional renewal for the licensee to comply with the terms of his sworn statement. The licensee may not import beer from outside the state directly or indirectly to an unlicensed warehouse.

(b) A warehouse or railway car in which orders for the sale of beer are taken or money from the sale of beer is collected is a separate place of business for which a license is required.

(c) A truck operated by a licensed manufacturer or distributor for the sale and delivery of beer to a licensed retail dealer at the dealer's place of business is not a separate place of business for which a license is required.

(V.A.P.C. Art. 666—57 (part).)

Sec. 102.01. Tied House Prohibited

(a) In this section, "tied house" means any overlapping ownership or other prohibited relationship between those engaged in the alcoholic beverage industry at different levels, that is, between a manufacturer and a wholesaler or retailer, or between a wholesaler and a retailer, as the words "wholesaler," "retailer," and "manufacturer" are ordinarily used and understood, regardless of the specific names given permits under Subtitle A, Title 3, of this code.

(b) In considering an original or renewal application for a permit issued under Subtitle A, Title 3, of this code, the commission or administrator may make any investigation or request any additional information necessary to enforce this section and to provide strict adherence to a general policy of prohibiting the tied house and related practices. The activities prohibited by this section are unfair competition and unlawful trade practices.

(c) No person having an interest in a permit issued under Subtitle A, Title 3, of this code may secure or hold, directly or indirectly, an ownership interest in the business or corporate stocks, including a stock option, convertible debenture, or similar interest, in a permit or business of a permittee of a different level who maintains licensed premises in Texas.

(d) No person may act or serve as officer, director, or employee of the businesses of permittees at different levels.

(e) No permittee may own the premises, fixtures, or equipment of a permittee of a different level.

(f) No permittee may secure or in any manner obtain the use of any premises, fixtures, or equipment on the credit of a permittee of a different level.

(g) No permittee may loan to, or by means of his credit secure a loan for, a permittee of a different level. If a permittee secures a loan from a source outside the state, there is a presumption of a tied house relationship or subterfuge, and the permittee securing the loan has the burden of showing that he has not violated this section.

(h) No permittee may enter with a permittee of a different level or with another person or legal entity into a conspiracy or agreement to control or manage, financially or administratively, directly or indirectly, in any form or degree, the business or interests of a permittee of a different level.

(i) No permittee may enter with another permittee into any type of profit-sharing agreement or any agreement relating to the repurchase of any assets or any agreement attempting to effectuate the shipment or delivery of an alcoholic beverage on consignment.

(j) On finding that a person has violated any provision of Subsections (c) through (i) of this section, the commission or administrator shall suspend for not less than six months or cancel the permit of any permittee involved. A person who held or had an interest in a permit cancelled under this subsection is ineligible to hold or have an interest in a permit for one year after the cancellation.

(k) This section does not apply to the application for renewal of a permit held by an applicant who was engaged in the legal alcoholic beverage business in this state under a charter or permit before August 24, 1935, or to an application for a nonresident seller's or wholesaler's permit held by an applicant who continuously has been the holder of a permit of that type since January 1, 1941. (V.A.P.C. Art. 666—17b.)

Sec. 102.02. Athletic Facility Owned by Manufacturer

The total or partial ownership by a manufacturer of premises primarily designed and used for athletic contests is not a ground for the denial, suspension, or cancellation of a retail license located on those premises. (V.A.P.C. Art. 667—32.)

(a) This section applies to any person who has an interest in the business of a distiller, brewer, rectifier, wholesaler, class B wholesaler, class A winery, class B winery, wine bottler, or local distributor's permittee. This section also applies to the agent, servant, or employee of a person who has an interest in one of those businesses.

(b) No person to whom this section applies may:

(1) have a direct or indirect interest in the business, premises, equipment, or fixtures of a mixed beverage establishment;

(a) No holder of a wholesaler's permit may own, possess, or sell any liquor manufactured, distilled, or rectified by a person, firm, or corporation that is directly or indirectly affiliated with the wholesale permittee, regardless of whether the affiliation is corporate, by management, direction, or control, or through an officer, director, agent, or employee.

(b) This section does not apply to a holder of a wholesaler's permit who held the permit on January 1, 1941, and has held it continuously since that date, who was on that date selling liquor manufactured, distilled, or rectified by such an affiliate. (V.A.P.C. Art. 666—17, subsec. (29).)

Sec. 102.09. Wholesaler: Interest in Distiller or Rectifier

If a check or draft is accepted in payment, it must be deposited in the bank for payment or presented for payment within two days after it is received. If the check or draft is dishonored by the drawee, the licensee or permittee who accepted it shall report that fact to the commission within two days after receiving notice of dishonor. SUBCHAPTER B. OUTDOOR ADVERTISING

Sec. 108.51. Definitions

In this subchapter:

(1) “Outdoor advertising” means any sign bearing a word, mark, description, or other device that is used to advertise an alcoholic beverage or the business of a person who manufactures, sells, or distributes an alcoholic beverage if the sign is displayed outside the walls or enclosure of a building or structure where a license or permit is issued or if it is displayed inside a building but within five feet of an exterior wall facing a street or highway so that it is visible by a person of ordinary vision from outside the building. “Outdoor advertising” does not include advertising appearing on radio or television, in a public vehicular conveyance for hire, or in a newspaper, magazine, or other literary publication published periodically. For the purpose of this definition the word “sign,” with respect to a retailer, does not include an identifying label affixed to a container as authorized by law or to a card or certificate of membership in an association or organization if the card or certificate is not larger than 80 square inches.

(2) “Billboard” means a structure directly attached to the land, a house, or a building having one or more spaces used to display a sign or advertisement of an alcoholic beverage or a person engaged in the manufacture, sale, or distribution of alcoholic beverages, whether or not the structure is artificially lighted. “Billboard” does not include a wall or other part of a structure used as a building, fence, screen, front, or barrier.

(3) “Electric sign” means a structure or device other than an illuminated billboard by which artificial light produced by electricity is used to advertise the alcoholic beverage business by a person who manufactures, sells, or distributes alcoholic beverages or to advertise an alcoholic beverage. (V.A.P.C. Art. 667—24a, subsec. 1.)

Sec. 108.52. Permissible Outdoor Advertising

(a) No outdoor advertising is permitted in this state except that which is authorized by this section or under rules of the commission or administrator promulgated pursuant to Section 108.03 of this code.

(b) Billboards and electric signs are permitted if they are not located in a manner contrary to this code.

(c) Retail licensees and permittees may erect or maintain one sign at each place of business which may read as follows:

(1) if a beer retailer, the sign may read "Beer";

(2) if an off-premises beer retailer, the sign may read "Beer" or "Beer to Go";

(3) if a wine and beer retailer, the sign may read "Beer," "Beer and Wine," or "Beer, Wine and Ale";

(4) if a wine and beer off-premises retailer, the sign may read "Beer," "Beer to Go," "Beer and Wine," "Beer and Wine to Go," "Beer, Wine and Ale," or "Beer, Wine and Ale to Go";

(5) if a package store permittee, the sign may read "Package Store," "Liquors," or "Wines and Liquors," and if a retail dealer's off-premise license is also held, the sign may read "Package Store," "Wines, Liquors and Beer," or "Wine, Liquors and Beer to Go"; or

(6) if a wine only package store permittee, the sign may read "Wine" or "Wines," and if a retail dealer's off-premise license is also held, the sign may read "Wines and Beer," "Wine and Beer," or "Wine and Beer to Go."

(d) A sign erected under Subsection (c) of this section may be placed inside or outside the place of business so as to be visible to the general public. None of the letters on a sign may be more than 12 inches in height, and no sign may contain any wording, insignia, or device representative of the brand or name of an alcoholic beverage. The commission or administrator may permit a licensee or permittee to erect or maintain one sign at each entrance or side of a building occupied by him if it faces more than one street or highway.

(e) Billboards, electric signs, or other signs to designate the firm name or business of a permittee or licensee authorized to manufacture, rectify, bottle, or wholesale alcoholic beverages may be displayed at the licensee's or permittee's place of business.

(f) A display composed of alcoholic beverages or printed or lithographed material advertising alcoholic beverages located inside the licensed premises is permitted if the alcoholic beverages or advertising material is not placed within six inches of a window or opening facing a street, alley, or highway. A card or certificate of membership in an association or organization is not "advertising material" for the purpose of this subsection if it is not larger than 80 square inches. (V.A.P.C. Art. 667—24a, subsec. 2 (part).)

Sec. 108.53. Billboards and Electric Signs: When Permit is Required

No permit is required for a billboard or electric sign that is not located within 200 feet of a retail establishment authorized to sell the advertised alcoholic beverage.

The prohibition remains in effect until changed by a subsequent local option election held under this code.

(c) If, in a legalization election, a majority of the votes cast favor the issue "For the legal sale . . .," the legal sale of the type or types of beverages stated in the issue at the election is legal on the entering of the court's order. Ch. 194 65th LEGISLATURE—REGULAR SESSION

§ 251.51

Sec. 251.52. Order Prima Facie Evidence

The order of the commissioners court declaring the result of the election is prima facie evidence that all provisions of law have been complied with in giving notice of and holding the election, counting and returning the votes, and declaring the result of the election. (V.A.P.C. Art. 666—37, subsec. (a) (part); Art. 666—39 (part).)

The posting of the order shall be recorded in the minutes of the commissioners court by the county judge. The entry in the minutes or a copy certified under the hand and seal of the county clerk is prima facie evidence of posting. (V.A.P.C. Art. 666—38.)

(a) A qualified voter of the county, justice precinct, or incorporated city or town where a local option election is held may contest the election any time within 30 days after the result of that election is declared.

(b) Those areas that are wet or dry when this code takes effect retain that status until the status of the area is changed as provided in this code.

(c) All trial courts of this state shall take judicial notice of the wet or dry status of an area in a criminal prosecution.

(d) In an information, complaint, or indictment, an allegation that an area is a dry area as to a particular type of alcoholic beverage is sufficient, but a different status of the area may be urged and proved as a defense. (V.A.P.C. Art. 666—23 (part); Art. 666—41a (part).)

Sec. 251.72. Change of Status

Except as provided in Section 251.73 of this code, an authorized voting unit that has exercised or may exercise the right of local option retains the status adopted, whether absolute prohibition or legalization of the sale of alcoholic beverages of one or more of the various types and alcoholic contents on which an issue may be submitted under the terms of Section 251.14 of this code, until that status is changed by a subsequent local option election in the same authorized voting unit. (V.A.P.C. Art. 666—32 (part).)

Sec. 251.73. Prevailing Status: Resolution of Conflicts

To insure that each voter has the maximum possible control over the status of the sale of alcoholic beverages in the area where he resides:

(1) the status that resulted from or is the result of a duly called election for an incorporated city or town prevails against the status that resulted from or is the result of a duly called election in a justice precinct or county in which the incorporated city or town, or any part of it is contained; and

(2) the status that resulted or is the result of a duly called election for a justice precinct prevails against the status that resulted from or is the result of a duly called election in an incorporated city or town in which the justice precinct is wholly contained or in a county in which the justice precinct is located. (V.A.P.C. Art. 666—32 (part).)

Sec. 251.74. Airport and Stadium as Wet Areas

Except for the right to sell beer or ale contrary to the local option status of the area, the licensee or permittee may engage in all activities authorized by the license or permit, including the manufacturing, brewing, possessing, storing, and packaging of beer or ale, and transporting it to an area where its sale is legal. The licensee or permittee may deliver beer or ale at his licensed premises to a purchaser from outside the state, an authorized carrier, distributor, or class B wholesaler. The purchaser, carrier, distributor, or class B wholesaler may not receive the beer or ale for transportation unless there has first been an order, acceptance, and payment or legal satisfaction of payment in an area where the sale of beer or ale is legal. (V.A.P.C. Art. 666—57 (part); Art. 667—2a.)

Sec. 251.76. Continuance of Operation as Distiller

Notwithstanding any other provision of this code, a person who has been issued a distiller's permit may not subsequently be denied an original or renewal distiller's permit for the same location on the ground that the sale of distilled spirits has been prohibited in the area by a local option election. A person holding a permit at the time of the election or issued a permit under this section may exercise all privileges granted by this code to the holder of a distiller's permit, including the manufacturing, possessing, storing, packaging, and bottling of distilled spirits and the transportation of them to areas in which their sale is legal. (V.A.P.C. Arts. 667—2a.)

Sec. 251.77. Continuance of Operation as Distributor

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this code, if the sale of beer is prohibited by local option election, a licensed distributor of beer whose warehouse or other facilities used in connection with the distributorship are located in the area affected, has the right to continue to operate as a distributor in that area and maintain the necessary premises and facilities for distribution. The distributor continues to enjoy all the rights and privileges incident to distributorship, including the right to possess, store, warehouse, and sell beer in that area, and deliver beer into and out of that area.

(b) A distributor in the area affected may sell or deliver beer only to licensed outlets located where the sale of beer is legal. (V.A.P.C. Art. 666—37, subsec. (b).)

Sec. 251.78. Continuance of Operation as Wholesaler

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this code, if the sale of the type or types of liquor authorized to be sold by the holder of a wholesaler's permit whose warehouse or other facility used in connection with the wholesale operation is prohibited in an area by local option election, the holder of the wholesaler's permit shall have the right to continue to operate as a wholesaler in that area and maintain the necessary premises and facilities for the wholesale operation. The wholesaler shall enjoy all the rights and privileges incident to the permit, including the right to possess, store, warehouse, sell, deliver, and receive liquor.

(b) A wholesaler in the area affected may only sell or deliver liquor to permittees located where the sale of liquor is legal. (V.A.P.C. Art. 666—37, subsec. (c), (d).)

Sec. 251.79. Areas in Which Certain Permits and Licenses May be Issued

Notwithstanding any other provision of this code, a wholesaler's permit, general class B wholesaler's permit, local class B wholesaler's permit, or general, local or branch distributor's license may be issued and licensed premises maintained in any area where the sale of any alcoholic beverage is legal. A person issued a permit or license under this section may exercise all rights and privileges of other permittees and licensees of the same class. (V.A.P.C. Art. 666—4, subsec. Sec. 3. Subdivision 8, Article 61, Texas Election Code, as amended (Article 6.05, Vernon's Texas Election Code), is amended to read as follows:

"Subdivision 8. When constitutional amendments or other propositions are to be voted on, they shall appear once on each ballot in uniform style and type. Each proposition shall be submitted by printing the word 'FOR' and beneath it the word 'AGAINST' on the left-hand side of a single statement of the proposition, with a brace or parallel horizontal lines or other suitable device to show clearly to which proposition each 'FOR' and 'AGAINST' belongs. A square shall be printed on the left-hand side of the word 'FOR' and of the word 'AGAINST' in the statements submitting each proposition, and the following instruction note shall be printed immediately above the propositions: 'Place an "X" in the square beside the statement indicating the way you wish to vote.' The provisions of this subdivision shall supersede all existing statutes on the form in which propositions are to be submitted in all elections where paper ballots are used except local option elections held under the provisions of the Alcoholic Beverage Code, and shall also supersede any conflicting enactment passed by the 60th Legislature at its regular session unless such enactment expressly excepts it from the operation of this subdivision."

Sec. 4. Article 62, Texas Election Code, as amended (Article 6.06, Vernon's Texas Election Code), is amended to read as follows:

"62. How to mark ballot

"In all elections, general, special, or primary, the voter shall place an 'X' in the square beside the name of each candidate for whom he wishes to vote; provided, however, that if the voter places a plus sign (+) or a check mark (✓) or any other mark that clearly shows his intention, in such space, it shall be counted as a vote for that candidate, provided that no more names are thus marked than there are places to be filled. When party columns appear on the ballot, a voter desiring to vote a straight ticket may do so by placing an 'X' or other clear mark in the square at the head of the column of the party for which he wishes to vote. If the name of the person for whom the voter wishes to vote is not printed on the ballot, the voter shall write in the name of the candidate for whom he wishes to vote, in the write-in column under the appropriate office title in elections where party columns appear on the ballot, and in an appropriate space under the title of the office in other elections; provided, however, that a voter shall not be entitled to vote for any candidate whose name is not printed on the ballot in any runoff election for nominating candidates or electing officers, and a space for write-in votes shall not be provided on the ballot for such elections. A voter shall also not be entitled to vote for any candidate whose name is not printed on the ballot in any other type of election where the law expressly prohibits votes for write-in candidates. In all elections where questions or propositions are to be voted on except local option elections held under the provisions of the Alcoholic Beverage Code, the voter shall place an 'X' or other clear mark in the square beside the statement indicating the way he wishes to vote on each proposition. The failure of a voter to mark his ballot in strict conformity with these directions or failure to vote a full ballot shall not invalidate the ballot, and a ballot shall be counted on all races and propositions wherein the intention of the voter is clearly ascertainable, except where the law expressly prohibits the counting of the ballot. It is specifically provided that the election officers shall not refuse to count a ballot because of the voter's having marked his ballot by scratching out the names of candidates for whom or the statement of propositions for which he does not wish to vote."

Sec. 5. Subdivision 4, Subsection (D), Article 20.04, Title 122A, Taxation—General, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 6. Section 2, Chapter 21, Acts of the 55th Legislature, Regular Session, 1957, as amended (Article 6184m, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), is amended to read as follows:

"Sec. 2. As used in this Act, 'alcoholic beverage' shall have the meaning defined in the Alcoholic Beverage Code, as heretofore or hereafter amended; 'controlled substance' means any substance defined as a controlled substance by the Texas Controlled Substances Act; and 'dangerous drug' means any substance defined as a dangerous drug by Chapter 425, Acts of the 56th Legislature, Regular Session, 1959, as amended (Article 4476—14, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes)."

Sec. 7. This Act is intended as a recodification only, and no substantive change in the law is intended by this Act.

Sec. 8. This Act takes effect September 1, 1977.

Sec. 9. The importance of this legislation and the crowded condition of the calendars in both houses create an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each house be suspended, and this rule is hereby suspended.

Passed by the House on April 6, 1977, by a non-record vote; and that the House concurred in Senate amendments to H.B. No. 815 on May 6, 1977, by a non-record vote; passed by the Senate, as amended, on May 4, 1977, by a viva-voce vote.

Approved May 20, 1977.
